

Providing Feedback

Nurse Faculty Academy workshop
as part of the North East Ohio Nursing Faculty Corps

in collaboration with the Northeast Ohio Nursing Initiative (NEONI)

funded by Robert Wood Johnson Foundation,
The Mt. Sinai Health Care Foundation, and
M.E. and F. J. Callahan Foundation

Friday, June 5, 2009

8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Continental Breakfast and Registration begins at 8 a.m.

Description

This workshop will provide participants to review the evidence base for providing feedback and feedback models. Participants will experience feedback and receiving feedback.

Session Objectives

1. Become aware of the evidence-base for providing feedback.
2. Select a model of feedback to achieve desired result.
3. Provide feedback using the SEIA format.

Workshop Facilitator

John M. Clochesy, PhD, RN, FAAN, FCCM
Independence Foundation Professor of Nursing Education
Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing, Case Western Reserve University

Content Outline

- I. What is feedback?
Our definitions
Experiences of feedback: giving and receiving
- II. Models of feedback
- III. The compulsion to give feedback
- IV. Giving feedback when invited
- V. The fear of giving feedback
- VI. Practice with the SEIA format of providing feedback
- VII. Closing the feedback cycle

Registration & Cost

$10 for NEONI Members/$30 for non-members
(includes continental breakfast and lunch)

Please send a check to:

NEONI
Attn: Lainie Maslinski
1226 Huron Road East
Cleveland, Ohio 44115

by noon on Monday, June 1, 2009.

Please make checks payable to The Center for Health Affairs.

Location

The Center for Health Affairs
1226 Huron Road East
Cleveland, Ohio 44115
The Western Reserve Room
(please sign in at the front desk)

Directions & Parking

Click here for a map, directions and parking information, or visit www.chanet.org.

Questions

Please contact Lainie Maslinski,
RN, BSN, MBA, Project Manager,
RWJ PIN Project, at 216.255.3663
or lainie.maslinski@chanet.org.